

QUIET PLEASE

THE FUTURE OF EU NOISE POLICIES

AN EVENT CO-ORGANISED BY T&E, EEB and HEAL

Wednesday 25th May, 13:00 - 18:00

European Economic and Social Committee
Rue van Maerlant 2, Brussels

AGENDA

13:00 LUNCH

14:00 WELCOME

T&E/EEB/HEAL and Luca Jahier, President, Civil Society Group,
European Economic and Social Committee

14:00 - 15:00 PANEL 1: POLICIES FOR COST-EFFECTIVE ROAD NOISE REDUCTION

Chair Kathleen Van Brempt, MEP

- The forthcoming proposal for stricter vehicle noise standards: Philippe Jean, Director (acting), Internal market, DG Enterprise and Industry, European Commission
- The Danish traffic noise reduction strategy: Brian Kristensen, Danish Environmental Protection Agency
- View from the regions: Piotr Gaudibert, External relations manager, BruitParif, Ile de France, Noise Observatory

15:00 - 16:00 PANEL 2: HEALTH IMPACTS FROM ENVIRONMENTAL NOISE

Chair Dr Miroslav Mikolášik, MEP

- Burden of disease from environmental noise: Dr Rok Ho Kim, WHO European Centre for Environment and Health
- Research needs for noise and health – the European Network for Noise and Health: Prof. Stephen Stansfeld, European Network on Noise and Health ENNAH
- Road traffic noise and cardiovascular health: Dr Mette Sørensen, Institute of Cancer Epidemiology

16:00 - 16:30 COFFEE BREAK

16:30 - 17:30 PANEL 3: MANAGING ENVIRONMENTAL NOISE

Chair Michael Cramer, MEP

- The review of the environmental noise directive: Soledad Blanco, Director Sustainable Resources, DG Environment, European Commission
- Managing noise in the EU: current and upcoming challenges: Colin Nugent, European Environment Agency
- Managing noise at city level: Laura Zapata, Barcelona City Council

17:30 FINAL DISCUSSION AND CONCLUDING REMARKS

TO REGISTER, GO TO: GOO.GL/Q08TZ

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

<http://www.transportenvironment.org/tag/events>

or contact: conference@transportenvironment.org