The Health & Environment Alliance is looking for a Health and Energy Adviser for the Balkans. The main activities will be to support HEAL's work on the topic of health and air pollution, and the interlinkage with energy and climate.

The Health and Environment Alliance (HEAL) is a leading European not-for-profit organisation addressing how the environment affects health in Europe. With the support of more than 80 member organisations, representing health professionals, patients, citizens, women, youth and environmental experts, HEAL helps to bring independent expertise and evidence from the health community to different decision-making processes (website: www.env-health.org). The Balkan region has been a focus of our work since 2014.

We are looking for an enthusiastic and outgoing professional to support activities on engaging the health sector, networking with various stakeholders, as well as media relations.

Interested applications must fulfil all of the following criteria:

- Degree in medicine, public health or any health-related field or at least five years relevant professional experience
- Proven experience in engagement of the health sector in the Balkans
- Proven experience in communicating on health or environment policy (writing articles, blogs, science to policy communication etc.)

We're looking for someone with:

- Excellent written and spoken Serbian and English
- Sound knowledge of social media and editing website particularly WordPress
- Preferably, but not necessarily basic knowledge of Photoshop
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to work under tight deadlines and manage multiple tasks
- Excellent interpersonal skills, self-starter, flexibility and reliability

The contract will be awarded for work carried out between January to December 2020, for 18 days/month. The consultant should be based in the Balkans.

Please send us your CV and a cover letter, explaining your interest in working for HEAL and the contribution you believe you could make, with the subject heading 'Consultant Health and Energy, Balkans' to Anne Stauffer, email: anne@env-health.org by 24 December 2019.

Please note only short-listed candidates will be contacted.
